

THE WEEKEND FILM SHOW

There will be no screenings in October due to the month of Ramadhan. But we will present Ozu special in November and December. The films are in Japanese with English subtitles and the admission is free. All the screenings will be held at Mini Auditorium, Malaysia Tourism Centre (MTC). The dates, times and titles are as follows:

1 Saturday, 19 November starting 4:30pm
"Late Spring"
Directed by OZU Yasujiro
1949, 109 min. Black & White

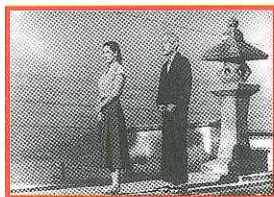

SOMIYA Shukichi, a college professor, lost his wife when he was still young and has been a widower since then.

He lives with his daughter Noriko the only child, in Kamakura. Worried about Noriko missing a chance to get married because of Shukichi, Masa, his younger sister, suggests him to remarry so that Noriko may consider her own marriage. However, Noriko does not seem to be eager to get married as she wants to be with him for good. Masa arranges an interview of Shukichi with MIWA Akiko, a widow whom she acquainted with at a tea ceremony, as his prospective wife, Noriko feels complex and asks him if he is serious about getting remarried.

Coming Soon...
